PRIVACY POLICY

The law on privacy has changed. This means that companies will have even greater responsibility to protect customers' personal information, including email addresses. The aim of these strict regulations regarding email addresses is to reduce the amount of fraudulent and unsolicited emails people receive.

In order for us to continue to send you emails, we need your permission to do so. Please tick the box on the online booking form if you would like to continue receiving marketing emails although we do our best to ensure that we keep them to a strict minimum.
